

KEVIN AKERS design + imagery

Bella Pictures asked Kevin Akers design + imagery to create a new identity system for their wedding photography company.

Here is a look at the design process and how Bella's new identity was created.

Business:

Bella Pictures is a wedding photography services company that connects clients with a national network of “freelance” photographers. Bella weds clients and photographers to provide an array of services and options that preserves the clients’ wedding memories and streamlines the process for photographers.

Communication Objectives:

To identify Bella Pictures as a wedding photography company that creates beautiful and artistic wedding imagery reflecting the client’s personal style.

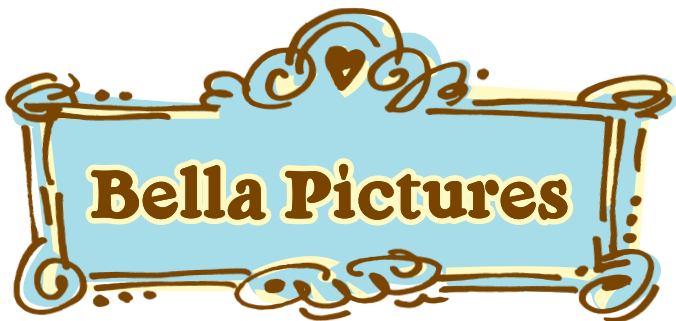

Elegant, Old World and luxurious

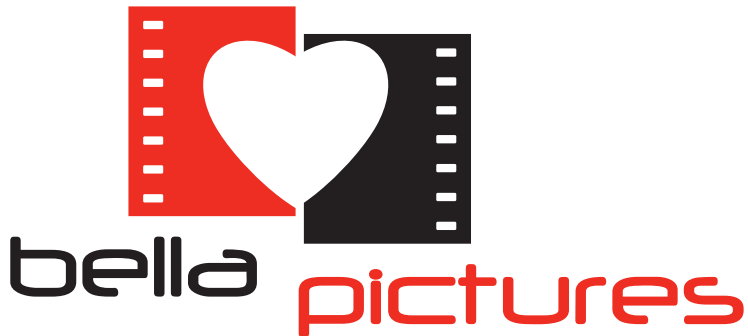

Romantic and regal

A dainty patch with a casual ambiance

A whimsical and light-hearted approach

...something new...

Bella Pictures

A combination of wedding and photography icons

Client really likes the script here

Stacked-up camera lenses in the shape of a wedding cake

An emphasis on the bridal photo album

Let's do something cool and chic

Client likes this script too

Bella

PICTURES

Bella captures all the Big Day's special moments

This is the concept

Bella

A logo with multiple readings of a camera and dancers

Let's play around with making the camera more prominent

Blurring the lines between dancers and camera

Bolder script with a beefed-up line weight for the mark

What if the camera were facing the viewer?

Let's move the logo over and really focus on dancers
